Welcome!

The people of Montana and, especially, Montana's hospitality industry welcome you to Big Sky Country. There's so much to see and do here, and so many ways to enjoy Montana. With this Travel Planner, we'll help you sort out the possibilities and answer questions like where to stay and where to go for more detailed information about what to do while you're here.

Most listings in this book are arranged alphabetically by town. But in a couple of instances, where "place" means more than a street address, we have arranged listings geographically. Montana's ranches and resorts are listed according to Montana's six vacation regions: Glacier Country, Charlie Russell Country, Missouri River Country, Custer Country, Yellowstone Country and Gold West Country. Each is a distinct vacation area with attractions and scenic values that live up to its name. Licensed outfitters are listed according to administrative regions. In both cases, locator maps at the beginning of each regional listing will orient you to the location of the service or facility.

For vacation information, ask us!

The Montana Vacation Guide and the Official Montana Highway Map are essential companions to this Travel Planner. The Vacation Guide provides detailed information about Montana's many vacation attractions: national and state parks, historic sites, museums and art galleries. The Highway Map provides reliable highway information to help you get around the state.

Motels & Hotels

Listings are arranged alphabetically by town.

Room rates based upon double occupancy for the 1988 summer season, and are subject to change.
$ = Under $30
$$ = Between $30 and $40
$$$ = Over $40

CREDIT CARDS:
VI = VISA
MC = MasterCard
AX = American Express
DC = Diners Club
CB = Carte Blanche
DSC = Discover

Montana's Motels and Hotels are listed alphabetically by town. All local telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code, and 800 numbers are listed where applicable.

Here you will also find listings for accommodations in Montana's national parks, Glacier and Yellowstone. Look for them under the name of the park. In addition, towns which are adjacent to the parks are listed immediately following each park. In the Glacier National Park area, look for East Glacier Park (southeast entrance), St. Mary (east), and West Glacier (west). In the Yellowstone National Park area, look for Cooke City and Silver Gate (northeast entrance), Gardiner (north) and West Yellowstone (west).

Then discover...from Absarokee (Ab-zoŕ-key) to Butte (Beaut...iful) to Ennis (rhymes with tennis) to Ekalaka (Eeé-ka-la-ka) to Havre (Haý-er) to Helena (Heĺ-en-a) to Kalispell (Kaĺ-is-pell) to Lima (like the bean) to Wibaux (Weé-bo). On the road, and off the beaten path, Montana (Mon-tá-na) is naturally inviting!

Bed & Breakfast Inns

Listings are arranged alphabetically by town.

Bed & Breakfast inns provide visitors with some of Montana's most unique accommodations. At the "B & Bs" listed below, you'll find accommodations ranging from down-home basic to uptown elegant. One quality they all share is a warm, friendly atmosphere, and an interest in guests that makes you feel like part of the family.

Enjoy a hearty country breakfast at most of these places, and plan to spend some time getting acquainted with your hosts and other guests. It's often an opportunity to pick up some local color about the area and its people.

For reservations, write or call the facilities you are interested in. A statewide reservation service is provided by: Bed & Breakfast Western Adventure, P.O. Box 20972, Billings, MT 59104, (406) 259-7993.

Rates listed below are for two people, in the under-$30 range ($), $30-$40 range ($$), and more than $40 ($$$). All telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code.

Ranches & Resorts Hostels & Hot Springs

Listings are arranged by vacation region.

Montana's guest ranches offer destination vacations with a special flair. And no two of them are alike. Each offers its own customized blend of western hospitality and ranch experiences served up in the style you choose.

One thing you're sure to find in a ranch vacation is a spectacular setting—towering Rocky Mountains, the biggest blue skies, cascading rivers and streams. You'll be far from wordly cares, and right up close to horses, wild mountain trout, chuckwagon barbecues and watchable wildlife.

The settings and activities are usually similar, but the special amenities at Montana's hot springs resorts make them unique. Imagine dipping in pools fed by naturally spring-fed and heated mineral water to ease your muscles after a hard day of horseback riding or hiking. It's a truly Montana experience!

Reservations are almost always required at guest ranches and resorts, so be sure to call or write the places that spark your interest in advance of your visit. All local telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code. Ranches that belong to the national Dude Ranchers' Association are indicated by "DRA" after the ranch name.

Private Campgrounds

Listings are arranged alphabetically by town.

Camping in Montana is a natural—and at hundreds of sites in developed, well-maintained private and community campgrounds, the best part of the experience is the site itself. Your backdrop will be towering Rocky Mountains in the west, or sunlit prairies stretching from horizon to horizon in the east.

Many private campgrounds offer more than a place to spend the night. Fishing, hayrides, swimming, horseshoes, boating and hot springs are just a few of their specialties. At no extra charge, you'll discover the camaraderie of new friends, a rekindled spirit of adventure, and a new respect for the natural world surrounding you.

Campgrounds are keyed, by nearest town, to the Official Montana Highway Map. For quick reference, see the Travel Planner Map on pp. 32. If you don't find the town you're looking for, please refer to the Official Highway Map. Many of the campgrounds list telephone numbers, all reached by the 406 area code. Keep in mind, though, that some are seasonal numbers, in service only during the summer.

Public campgrounds are listed separately, beginning on p. 38.

Public Campgrounds

Listings are arranged alphabetically by nearest town.

With more than a third of its 93 million acres owned and managed by federal and state agencies, Montana has a wealth of public campgrounds in settings that range from forested mountains and lakes to sun-bleached badlands. Located in prime recreation areas, these campgrounds provide access to fishing, hunting, hiking and backpacking, boating and swimming, cycling, horseback riding and rock hunting.

The campgrounds listed here are accessible by vehicle. Many additional campgrounds are located in the backcountry and can be reached only by foot or on horseback. Campgrounds are keyed, by nearest town, to the Official Montana Highway Map. For quick reference, see the Travel Planner Map on pp. 32. If you don't find the town you're looking for, please refer to the Official Highway Map.

Private campgrounds are listed separately, beginning on p. 28.

Legend

Licensed Outfitters

Guided Hunting, Hiking, Fishing & Float Trips

Listings are arranged by administrative region.

Some of Montana's best vacations are off the beaten path ... in wilderness camps, on remote whitewater rivers, in range after range of rugged Rocky Mountains. Let an outfitter show you the time of your life on a Montana Adventure Vacation.

Montana's licensed outfitters and guides are more than outdoor recreation professionals. They are biologists, botanists, geologists, naturalists and historians whose knowledge and infectious love of Montana will add immeasurably to your vacation.

The accompanying map shows the administrative regions of the state, designated by Montana's Board of Outfitters. Licensed outfitter services are listed by region, alphabetically by town within each region. Keep in mind that outfitters are sometimes licensed and permitted to operate in areas other than their mailing address. An outfitter based in Region 1, for example, may also be permitted to operate in Region 2 or Region 3. All telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code.

Under "Additional Information," note the designations "F," "M" and/or "P." These identify members of Montana's professional recreational organizations—"F" for Fishing & Floating Outfitters Association of Montana; "M" for Montana Outfitters & Guides Association; "P" for Professional Wilderness Outfitters Association.

For more information about nonresident hunting and fishing licenses and season dates, write or call the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife & Parks, 1420 East Sixth, Helena, MT 59620, (406) 444-2535. For a complete list of licensed outfitters, write or call the Montana Board of Outfitters, Department of Commerce, Helena, MT 59620, (406) 444-3737.

Then, plan to start a new vacation tradition —a guided, outdoor adventure in naturally inviting Montana!

The Hiker's Guide to Montana

by Bill Schneider

If you're planning on hiking, don't be without this indispensible guide. No matter if you're an experienced hiker or a beginner, this book will tell you everything you need to know—how strenuous the hike, whether it's suitable for kids, safety tips, what to bring in your survival kit, what you're likely to find along the way, whether camping is permitted, and much, much more. This is the only guide to cover the entire state, including detailed descriptions of 100 hikes by 31 veteran Montana hikers.

256 pages, maps, photos. $8.95 softcover.

The Angler's Guide to Montana

by Michael Sample

With so many lakes, reservoirs, and rivers to chose from, you need this excellent guide for fishing Montana's waters. This is the most complete guide available to Montana's 16 major trout streams and 70 tributaries plus 108 of the best lakes and reservoirs. Also included is detailed coverage of Yellowstone and Glacier national parks and specific, provocative tips from the pros on what flies, lures, and baits to use.

256 pages, maps, photos. $8.95 softcover.

The Rockhound's Guide to Montana

by Bob Feldman

Finally, the book rockhounds have been waiting for—a statewide guide on how and where to find such treasures as the famous Montana Yogo sapphires, agates, crystals, geodes, and fossils—and information on how to pan for gold.

160 pages, maps, photos. $7.95 softcover.

The Floater's Guide to Montana

by Hank Fischer

Extensively revised and updated for this third printing, The Floater's Guide has become the standard introduction to Montana's rivers for canoeists, rafters, kayakers, and boaters of all ages and skills. And now, The Floater's Guide has a comprehensive chapter dealing solely with the white water sections of Montana's waterways—a must for all white water enthusiasts.

144 pages, maps, photos. $8.95 softcover.

The Hunter's Guide to Montana

by Mark Henckel

This useful guide taps the knowledge of 120 sources, including wildlife biologists, academics, guides and outfitters, outdoor writers, and hunters. It covers big game, upland bird, and waterfowl opportunities in Montana and details tactics successful hunters have used over the years.

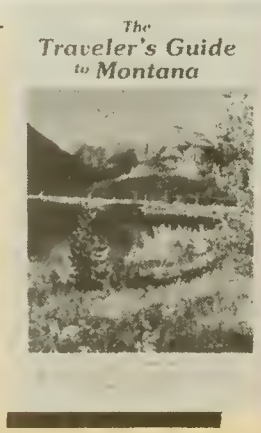
224 pages, maps, photos. $9.95 softcover, $16.95 hardcover.

The Traveler's Guide to Montana

by Gary Turbak

This book takes you on a guided tour of virtually every road and highway in Montana. It contains the most comprehensive listing and descriptions available of public and private campgrounds, recreational opportunities, motel accommodations, nordic and alpine skiing, country inns, fishing access sites, wilderness areas, wildlife refuges, historic sites, Glacier and Yellowstone national parks, and much more.

222 pages, maps, photos. $7.95 softcover.



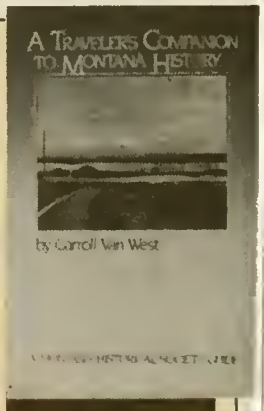
The Traveler's Companion to Montana History

by Carroll Van West

The most complete and comprehensive roadside history guide to Montana ever written.

Learn about Montana's landscape, historic buildings, mining camps, ghost towns, Indian reservations, early settlers, local histories, and much, much more—all from your car! No matter what your route, you'll learn interesting facts about everything you see along the way.

256 pages, maps, photos. $9.95 softcover.



New! For Montana lovers!

Montana on my Mind

Photography by Michael S. Sample and Larry Mayer

Includes selected quotations from Ivan Doig, Gary Cooper, A.B. Guthrie, Jr., C.M. Russell, Norman Maclean, Chet Huntley, Lewis and Clark, Jeanette Rankin, Mike Mansfield, John Steinbeck, and many others.

Here are the images Montanans cherish, captured in stunning photography and eloquent quotations and reproduced with the highest-quality printing. Celebrate the beauty, the heritage, the pride, and the spirit of Montana with Montana on my Mind.

A superb gift idea for everyone with Montana on their minds.

120 pages, 214 full-color photos, 10" x 13 1/2". All books packaged in sturdy mailing cartons. $29.50 hardcover.

Now in its 15th year!

1988 Montana Calendar

by Michael Sample

Michael Sample presents 14 breathtaking images of Montana's wildlife and scenic beauty—each suitable for framing. This year's calendar also includes interesting captions for each photo which help you know more about Montana. Sample's expert photography makes each month a Montana adventure. Also included are the last six months of 1987 on one page for easy reference.

Treat yourself. Still only $4.95. But order soon, they won't last at this low price!

24 pages, 14 full-page color photos, 11" x 8 1/2 ", $4.95.
